

Privacy Notice for Alumni

This privacy notice describes how we collect, store and use personal information about you during and after your relationship with us, in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

Following Brexit, Regulation (EU) 2016/679, General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is retained EU law and known as UK GDPR. The UK GDPR sits alongside an amended version of the Data Protection Act 2018, which supplements it by setting out additional provisions on matters such as the processing of personal data in specific sectors, exemptions, the powers of the Information Commissioner, and enforcement. The Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 further amends both the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 to modernise UK data protection rules and clarify certain rights and obligations. The GDPR continues to apply within the EU and to organisations that process personal data of individuals located in the EU.

This privacy notice also covers the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) systems which may process personal data as part of educational and administrative functions. We are committed to transparently explaining how these technologies are used and the data they process.

This notice applies to all alumni.

Who Collects This Information.

The 3-18 Education Trust (Trust) is a “data controller.” This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. We are required under data protection legislation to notify you of the information contained in this privacy notice.

This notice does not form part of a contract to provide services and we may update this notice at any time.

It is important that you read this notice with any other policies mentioned within this privacy notice, so that you are aware of how and why we are processing your information, what your rights are under data protection legislation and the procedures we take to protect your personal data.

Data Protection Principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our Data Protection policy.

Categories of Alumnus Information we Collect, Process, Hold and Share

We process data relating to alumni. Personal data that we may collect, process, hold and share (where appropriate) about you includes:

- Contact information such as name, address, email address, contact numbers.
- Historical records of your time in school, including records of your achievements and interests, photos and videos.
- Records of contributions you have made to a Trust school since leaving, such as your time, expertise, or financial contribution.

- Records of how you have engaged with our alumni network, including emails you have opened, events attended, mailing lists you have signed up to and other interactions.
- Bank details.
- Records associated with Gift Aid claims on donations.
- Records of your consents and contact preferences.
- Information required to manage your attendance at alumni events, including access arrangements and dietary requirements which may include health conditions.
- CCTV footage where installed when attending our schools' sites.
- Data processed by AI systems, which may include information about IT usage, and automated administrative tasks.

How We Collect This Information

We may collect this information from you in a number of different ways. The main data collection will be by our registration form, but we may also collect data through our signing in system, our websites and other technical systems such as our computer networks and connections, CCTV and access control systems, remote access systems, email and instant messaging systems, intranet and internet facilities.

How We Use Your Information

We will only use your personal information when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your information in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation (such as health and safety legislation, under statutory codes of practice and employment protection legislation).
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests, rights and freedoms do not override those interests.
- When you have provided us with consent to process your personal data.

The situations in which we will process your personal information are listed below:

- Alumnus management including retention.
- Complying with legal obligations.
- Carry out necessary administration functions.
- Health and safety obligations.
- Prevention and detection of fraud or other criminal offences.
- To defend the Trust in respect of any investigation or court proceedings and to comply with any court or tribunal order for disclosure.
- Help us build a community around our schools.
- Offer enrichment and career development opportunities to current pupils.
- Raise money so that we can continue to improve the experience pupils get from our schools;
- Notify you of alumni events you may be interested in.
- Keep you up to date with school news.
- Help us promote our schools.
- Maintain a record of visitors to our schools.
- Tailor the communications we send to you, to ensure they are appropriate and relevant.

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information. Where appropriate, AI systems may be used to support some of these purposes, for example to assist with administrative tasks or improve operational efficiency.

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose.

How we use Particularly Sensitive Information

Sensitive personal information (as defined under the UK GDPR as “special category data”) require higher levels of protection and further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal information. We may process this data where we have a lawful basis to do so and one of the following conditions applies:

- In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent;
- To comply with legal obligations, such as safeguarding or equality requirements;
- For reasons of substantial public interest, in line with our Data Protection Policy (for example, for safeguarding or equality monitoring).
- Where necessary to establish, exercise, or defend legal claims;
- Where necessary to protect your vital interests (or those of another person) and you are unable to consent.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

We employ AI technologies to support various educational and administrative functions. These technologies are designed to comply with data protection laws and are implemented with safeguards to protect your privacy. If you have any concerns about the use of AI in processing your data, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Sharing Data

We may need to share your data with third parties, including third party service providers where required by law, where it is necessary to administer the working relationship with you or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so. These include the following:

- Other schools within the Trust.
- Professional advisors such as lawyers and consultants.
- The Trust’s finance/accounting teams.
- Support services (including insurance, IT support and information security).

Information will be provided to those agencies securely or anonymised where possible.

The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations, we require them to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

Retention Periods

Except as otherwise permitted or required by applicable law or regulation, the Trust only retains personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes they collected it for, as required to satisfy any legal, accounting or reporting obligations, or as necessary to resolve disputes. We will retain your data for as long as you remain a member of our alumni and up to a year afterwards (or longer if the law requires us to, e.g. for financial records).

Security

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information (i.e. against it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way). In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. Details of these measures are available upon request,

You can find further details of our security procedures within our Data Breach policy and our Information Security policy. These policies are available upon request.

Your Rights of Access, Correction, Erasure and Restriction

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Access your personal information (commonly known as a “subject access request”). This allows you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check we are lawfully processing it. You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information. However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.
- Correction of the personal information we hold about you. This enables you to have any inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Erasure of your personal information. You can ask us to delete or remove personal data if there is no good reason for us continuing to process it.
- Restriction of processing your personal information. You can ask us to suspend processing personal information about you in certain circumstances, for example, if you want us to establish its accuracy before processing it.
- To object to processing in certain circumstances (for example for direct marketing purposes).
- To transfer your personal information to another party.

If you want to exercise any of the above rights, please contact the Trust’s IT Director in writing.

Right to Withdraw Consent

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the Trust’s IT Director. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Contact

If you would like to discuss anything within this privacy notice or have a concern about the way your personal data is collected or used, we request that you raise your concern with the Trust’s IT Director in the first instance. We will acknowledge receipt of your complaint within 30 calendar days and will investigate and respond without undue delay. Further information about the way we handle data protection complaints can be found in our Data Protection Policy, available upon request.

We have appointed a data protection officer (DPO) to oversee compliance with data protection and this privacy notice. If you have any questions about how we handle your personal information which cannot be resolved by the Trust's IT Director, then you can contact the DPO on the details below:
